NEW ORLEANS HAS A $5,000,000 FIRE

Magnificent Railroad Terminals Completely Destroyed.

23,000 BALES OF COTTON BURNED

No Lives Were Lost, But Firemen Had Several Narrow Escapes—Work Will Commence Immediately to Rebuild Burned District.

New Orleans, Feb. 28.—The fire at the Illinois Central Terminals in this city had burned out by 1 a. m., having made a clean sweep of elevators and sheds from Louisiana avenue to Napoleon avenue. The smouldering ruins will, of course, burn for a day or two.

The wharves destroyed is estimated at $312,000. Two elevators, old and new, warehouses, wharf sheds, numbers 1 to 8, and part of number 9, new F.O.B. cotton warehouse, $2,500,000; cotton destroyed 23,000, $920,000; 700,000 bushels of grain, $385,000; 15,000 barrels of sugar, $300,000; cotton seed cake 130 car loads, $97,500. Lumber, $16,625; cement, $56,250; meal, 20 cars, $10,000; sundries, $150,000; 500 freight cars, $375,000; ships ramaged, $5,000; city fire department, two engines, four horses, $15,000; private property and other damage, $216,000. Total over $5,000,000.

It is estimated that the insurance on stored freight, etc., will approximate $4,000,000.

The Illinois Central railroad announces today that as soon as the ruins cool forces will be put to work to clear away the debris and Stuyvesant docks and elevators will be promptly rebuilt, on a more elaborate and substantial scale than before.

In the meantime, the officials of the roads are today engaged in the formulation of plans that will enable them to handle the traffic now on its way here from the west and to avoid any material diversion of freight from this city.

The railroad company carried its own insurance and the contents of the various elevators and sheds were insured in local and foreign agencies.

The wharves covered 4,750 feet, a distance of over ten blocks. Of this wharfage 35,000 feet and what it contained was destroyed, the remainder at the upper end of the terminals being saved through the fact that the wind blew strongly in the opposite direction. The destroyed wharf cost $500,000. Elevator "D," leased to Harris, Scotton & Co., of Chicago, cost $300,000 when built, and elevator "E," which was operated by the Illinois Central, cost $400,000.

Apparently, no lives were lost in the fire, though there were many narrow escapes of those who were engaged in fighting the flames, owing to its rapid spread, and lives were constantly endanger by debris of all kinds that was whirled through the air. The escape of two fire engines was cut off and their crews had to run for their lives. Driver Charles Richardson, of No. 6, being painfully hurt.

The fire started in one of the conveyors to elevator "D." It spread with remarkable rapidity, sparks dropping into oil barrels on the wharf and replenishing the flames in every direction. Ten ships were lying at the docks when the fire started and all except two escaped without damage. The Indian, of the Leyden line, had her rails, the cabin house, the masts wiped clean off, and the Cycle was burned about the prow and sides. All the tugs in the harbor that had steam up herried to the scene when the fire started, and by heroic efforts succeeded in putting the steamers into the river out of reach of the flames.

Superintendent O. M. Dunn, directed the forces of the railroad company for several hours and when the fire was under control went to the office of the company, where he spent the night in wire communication with officials east and west and in settling the lines for the clearing the wreckage away. He said that it was probable that the piers, elevators and sheds could be restored within a year and that they would be made more extensive and substantial than those destroyed. Mr. Dunn said, in his opinion, the fire originated from spontaneous combustion.

The fire destroyed the Crescent Ice company, many small stores and a large number of small residences, and many pathetic scenes were witnessed as the poor occupants of them struggled to save their small belongings at the risk of their lives.

The fire will temporarily throw out of work a large number of employes, but this loss will be compensated by the very much larger number that will be employed in the course of a few days in clearing away the debris and reconstructing the terminals at the highest attainable speed.

Railroad Magnates to Oversee.

Chicago, Feb. 28.—Second Vice President J. T. Harahan and General Manager I. G. Rawan, left Chicago in a special car today for New Orleans. They go to oversee changes resulting from the fire.

FOUR MORE VICTIMS FOUND.

Believed that Five More Bodies Are In Ill-Fated Mine.

Birmingham, Ala., Feb. 28.—By almost superhuman efforts the rescuers at work in the Virginia mine Sunday recovered the bodies of two more victims of last Monday's disastrous explosion, which makes the total number recovered up to this time 103.

It is believed five more bodies are under the great flood of water, which has risen in the mine.

The workmen expect to have the pump working late in the night which now seems absolutely necessary before th erescue work can proceed further. Many of the widows and orphans left by the disaster are leaving Virginia, but the relief committee which now has almost $25,000 for distribution, will see that none of them want for the necessities of life.

A movement was startedy to raise a self-perpetuating fund of $75,000 for the relief of those left destitute by accidents in th emines of Alabama in the future.

Two more bodies of the victims of the great explosion as Virginia mines on last Monday were recovered by the rescuers today, making the total number recovered 105. The bodies gotten out today were those of negroes. The rescue party, it is understood, has located six more bodies, and hopes to hav them out by night.

MEET DEATH BY EXPLOSION.

Twenty-Three Miners Believed To Have Been Killed In West Virginia.

Bluefield, W. Va., Feb. 28.—As a result of an explosion in shaft No. 1 of the United States Coal and Coke company, at Wilcoe, 23 miners are supposed to have lost their lives, and it is possible that the number fill exceed this.

Up to 8 p. m. 15 dead bodies had been taken from the shaft. A large rescuing party are in the mines tonight. It is barely possible, but not likely, that some of the remaining entombed miners will be rescued alive.

The explosion was of terrific force and shattered glass windows a miles distant. Immediately after the shock a great number of miners, who were off duty today, it being Sunday, rushed to the shaft to find great clouds of smoke and dust gushing from its mouth.

Mothers, children and other relatives soon were weeping and pleading for the rescue of those dear to them entombed in the mine. The officials of the mines, including General Manager Reis, were soon on the ground and the work of rescuing the miners is now being directed by Mr. Reis.

The dead miners thus far recovered are all Italians and Hungarians, and have not as yet been identified.

Seek to Free Nan Patterson.

New York, Feb. 27.—Nan Patterson, under indictment for the alleged murder of Caesar Young, the California bookmaker, expects to be free Tuesday. Today an application will be made by her counsel to Justice Gaynor in the supreme court, in Brooklyn, for a writ of habeas corpus to secure her release on bail. The application will be based on the fact that Nan has been tried once, that the jury failed to agree, and that since the mistrial two court calendar months have passed without the district attorney making any effort to try her again.

TWO MEN KILLED BY NEGROES.

Difficulty in Mississippi Results in a Double Tragedy.

Yazoo City, Miss., Feb. 28.—A difficulty occurring late yesterday afternoon between Ed Stevens, a prominent planter living near this city, and four negroes, led to the killing of Stevens and his brother, W. H. Stevens, and the wounding of a negro named Wilder, one of the slayers of the Stevens brothers. The negroes escaped.

A sheriff and posse are now scouring the country for the quartette of blacks and a lynching is believed to be inevitable, if the negroes are captured.

Details regarding the killing of the Stevens brothers, which occurred on a plantation 2 miles from this city, are meager. Ed Stevens, it is said, had gone to the cabin of Wilder, near the former's home, and became engaged in a quarrel with him, Wilder's wife and two other negroes. W. H. Stevens running up to the cabin, tried to quiet the disturbance. Later the quarrel was renewed and he hastened back to the scene, when he saw Wilder's wife rush upon his brother. W. H. Stevens raised a shotgun and fired at the woman. Wilder and his companion promptly drew pistols and fired on the Stevens brothers, killing both of them.

MISTAKEN FOR FOOTPAD.

Atlanta Man Is Instantly Killed by a Man for Highwayman.

Atlanta, Feb. 28.—Thinking he was being heldup by a footpad, Thomas G. Foote drew a pistol Sunday night at the mouth of an alley on South McDaniel street, and shot Peter F. Ryan dead in his tracks.

Not knowing whether he had killed his man or not, Foote continued on his way to get assistance.

A few minutes later a man named Stewart came along and saw the dead body lying avross the sidewalk.

He went after help and encountered P. William Ryan, and told him about the dead body. Ryan went to the spot and upon looking into the face saw that the dead man was his brother.

County Policeman Golden, who lived nearby, was called, and he investigated the affair, and with the assistance of Policeman Gower and Officers Fincher and Ozburn, arrested Foote and locked him up at police barracks.

The dead man was a prominent Knight of Columbus.

Curfew Law for Georgia Town.

Gainesville, Ga., Feb. 28.—The city council at its meeting Saturday night passed a curfew regulation for Gainesville. The law provides that all persons found on the streets after 11 o'clock at night shall be arrested and detained until good excuse for being out at this hour is given. Charlie Collins, a negro, was arrested as the first one under this regulation Saturday night about 12 o'clock. It is not thought that he was up to any mischief. The passage of the law followed the numerous attempts that have been made to assassinate citizens of Gainesville.

Tifton, Ga., Hotel Burns.

Tifton, Ga., Feb. 28.—Tifton was visited by another disatrous fire Sunday night at 7 o'clock, which completely destroyed Hotel Sadie and contents. The fire originated in the southeast wing of the building, near the roof, while the guests were at supper, and in a few minutes had sperad between the roof and ceiling until the entire top of the building, a large wooden one, was in flames. Only a small portion of the furniture was saved and some of the wearing apparel of the guests. There was no wind at all, and the fire was kept confined to the hotel building.

JAPANESE ARMY IS SHELLING MUKDEN

General Engagement Is In Progress All Along the Line.

MIKADO'S ARMY PUSHING FIGHT

Much Damage Is Reported as the Result of Shots From Eleven-Inch Mortar's Used by General Kuroki's Artillery.

New Chwang, Via Tien Tsin, Feb. 27.—6 p. m.—According to a person who has just returned here from the front, the Japanese are shelling Mukden with 11-inch mortars. The bombardment, which was recently commenced, is further reported to have caused great damage far behind the Russian lines.

Advices from Chinese sources say that a general engagement is in full progress all along the line.

The heaviest fighting is reported to be occurring on the Japanese right, and General Kuroki is said to be sweeping further north and threatening to crumple the Russians back on the railroad.

A special force is reported to be moving from the south and east with the intention of cutting off the Russian communication by railroad with Vladivostok.

Tokio, Feb. 27.—3 p. m.—The only announcement made today from the headquarters of the Japanese armies in Manchuria were a brief statement to the effect that the Russians continued a bombardment Saturday and Sunday, that the weather is very cold and that it is snowing.

Deserters Must Return.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 28—Yeilding to the demand of the United States, Russia has not only ordered the officers of the cruiser Lena, who violated their parole, to return to San Francisco, but has reduced them one grade as punishment. The only excuse offered was their youth. General Kuropatkin, in a dispatch dated Feb. 26, announces that the Japanese have commenced cannonading in the direction of Gaoto and Wansun passes.

TO GET INCREASED WAGES.

Bricklayers of New York May Receive 70 Cents Per Hour.

New York, Feb. 28.—If they vote to accept, more than 9,000 bricklayers in this city, in accordance with their agreement with the Mason Builders' association, will have their wages raised from 65 to 70 cents per hour on Wednesday, the highest wages ever paid by bricklayers in the country.

Under this scale of wages it will be possible for a bricklayer to make $67.20 a week, for during the busy season the men work twelve hours a day. For every hour over time they get double pay, so, for the extra hours they receive as much as for the previous eight. The men say that this salary is not so much, as they are only employed six months in the year. Employers say the average is about nine months.

The present agreement was made last May.

Situation In Turkey Alarming.

Almost the whole country southward of Sanaa is in revolt, and the towns of Kataba and Taais have fallen into the hands of insurgent Arabs, whose forces are constantly increasing. Defective transport renders the dispatch of Turkish reinforcements most difficult. Great numbers of camels are perishing on the road, while large numbers of troops are deserting.

"There is a purely Indian exploit which is recognized as a test of fast shooting," says Mr. Ernest Thompson Seton in Country Life In America. HAD TO HIDE IT

A mother wrote us recently that she had to keep Scott's Emulsion under lock and key—her children used to drink it whenever her back was turned. Strange that children should like something that is so good for them. It's usually the other way. Scott's Emulsion makes children comfortable, makes them fat and rosy-cheeked. Perhaps that's why they like it so much—they know it makes them feel good.

I have been a sufferer with almost every kind of female trouble for years, but as long as I could get around and do my work I would not try patent medicines as I had no faith in them.

The Culture of Potatoes, and Growers Confidently Anticipate a Big Thing Financially—Death of an Old and Respected Citizen.

Santa Fe, Feb. 28.—On the morning of the 25th inst., this community was saddened by the death of one of its old and respected citizens, W. W. Pope, who succumbed to an attack of pneumonia after an illness of five days. He was in his seventy-third year, a veteran of two wars, the Indian War in 1858, and the war between the States in the spring of '62. He left his devoted family and enlisted in the Seventh Florida Regiment and served until the close of the war. He was a member of the Gainesville camp of the Confederate Veterans. His remains were interred at the New Hope cemetery Sunday, Elder Johnithan Dukes officiating. He was a member of the Baptist church. He leaves three sons and one daughter and a large circle of friends and relatives to mourn his death.

The scarcity of labor is causing many farmers to cut down their acresge here, but judging by the quantity of fertilizer that is being delivered, one would come to the conclusion that the acreage of cotton would be large.

J. M. Hall of Camden, S. C., is visiting relatives here. He expresses himself as being very favorably impressed with this community.

F. H. Cason departed for Georgia last week, where he expects to enter the telegraph school at that place.

Miss Cylla Kennedy, the efficient assistant teacher, visited the Central City Saturday.

The public school is in good shape, though owing to the bad weather last month the average was not as good as desired; but it was no fault of the teachers, as the patrons are well pleased with them.

The Santa Fe Produce Company has planted thirty-five acres in potatoes on their farm southwest of the station.

T. E. Williams, Jr., is the boss bird hunter in this community. He is a dead shot, and does not fail to bag the largest quantity of game.

Prof. P. D. Cox, the Santa Fe photographer, is turning out some fine work. He is being well patronized.

The T. S. Williams Potato and Melon Company has finished planting one of the largest crops of potatoes that has ever been planted in the county. They are now planting three hundred acres in melons.

The soil in this section is said to be among the finest in the South for the culture of potatoes, equalling in every way the famous Hastings lands.

R. R. Sparkman of Lake Butler, the crosstie contractor, is shipping ties from here this week.

The Baird saw mill is making good time now, but are not able to fill orders as fast as wanted.

EX-GOV. BOUTWELL DEAD.

Prominent Citizen of Massachusetts Passes to the Great Beyond.

Groton, Mass., Feb. 28.—After an illness of a few days George Sewall Boutwell, former governor of Massachusetts and former United States secretary of the treasury, died at his home here today aged 87.

For more than 60 years, Mr. Boutwell had been in public life beginning his career as a lecturer at the age of 19. He was a personal friends of President Lincoln and an outspoken abolitionist. He was secretary of the treasury in President Grant's first cabinet.

Mr. Boutwell was among the most earnest opponents of the Spanish war. In fact, so strong was his conviction that after the war was declared he left the Republican party and helped with the formation of the anti-Imperialist league, became its president, which office he held a tthe time of his death.

I consider them the best medicine on earth, and thank God who gave you the knowledge to make them." TURPENTINE EXPERIMENTS.

The old system of boxing Southern pine trees for the production of turpentine and resin has very greatly reduced the pine timber wealth of the Southern States. Three years ago the Bureau of Forestry determined that something should be done to eliminate so destructive a method of procuring naval stores. Its three years of experiments towards this end have demonstrated that a new system of turpentining, which requires the use of earthen cups and metal gutters, not only greatly conserves the life of the timber-tapped, but also gives an increased yield of resin, and therefore a greater profit than is possible by boxing. The box method and the new cup and gutter method of turpentining are fully described and illustrated in Bulletin No. 40 of the Bureau of Forestry.

While the new system is not yet in use by all turpentine operators, its application is extending as rapidly as the necessary equipment can be secured. At present there is but one company supplying the kind of cups and gutter iron required. It is hoped, since the demand for this material is very great, that in the near future the supply will be sufficiently increased to enable turpentine operators to procure the needed equipment.

While, in the work just completed, the Bureau of Forestry has performed an important service to the turpentine industry, it feels that a still more conservative method of turpentining can be found which, consistent with a maximum yield of turpentine, will inflict the smallest possible injury upon the trees. With this in view, the bureau has begun an entirely new line of field experiments, in order to determine to what extent the wound now made in tapping the trees can be lessened.

Through the public-spirited and cordial co-operation of the Hillman-Sutherland Land Company of Jacksonville, Fla., a stand of about 40,000 pine trees in Clay county, Florida, with other facilities, have, without cost to the government, been placed at the disposal of the bureau for experimental purposes.

The principal experiments now set on foot comprise the practical working of a number of different turpentine crops. One set of trees will be used to determine the best width of face to be cut on trees of different diameters.

Another set of trees will be used to demonstrate the rate in height at which weekly chippings should proceed in order to stimulate a flow of resin. It is believed that the weekly chipping now practiced cuts away in height at one time too much of the living wood. At present this upward chipping amounts to about eight inches every year, and it is thought this can be reduced one-half or two-thirds. Such a saving in face of height will permit a considerable increase in the number of crop years, which should give a much increased total yield of resin, as well as reduce the demand upon the area of pine forests. There will also be an economy for operators in not having to move their equipment from one set of trees to another as frequently as is the case at present.

Still another set of trees will be devoted to finding out how deep toward the center of the tree each streak should be chipped. Under the present practice, it is believed that an unnecessarily deep cut is made, thereby greatly reducing the vitality of the tree and consequently its capacity to produce resin.

The Daily Florida Sun is bound to keep up to the times, and with the famous cartoonist, Arthur K. Taylor, on its staff, will no doubt be able to make faces at all the people of the State. Taylor has done some very clever work on The Times-Union, and he will still amuse and instruct the people of Jacksonville and the State, on The Sun.

As The Sun predicted, the court of inquiry in the Senate showed that there was no intention on their part for conviction in the case of Judge Swayne. People will soon begin to realize the fact that there has not been any falling out among those chaps, and honest folks are in no danger of getting their dues for some time to come.

The Nebraska Senate has passed a law that organ grinders' monkeys shall not be worked over eight hours a day, on pain of fine and imprisonment of both the monkey and his owner. That is a stride in the right direction, though a better step would make it a crime to work the little wretches at all.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. STOLE MONEY AND SUFFERED ARREST

A Slick Diamond Thief and Swindler Believed to be in Toils.

STOLE FROM COLORED MAN

At Waldo, and After Fleecing Him Out of $110 on Flattering Pretense Was Arrested in Attempt to Escape—Costly Diamonds Found on Person.

S. Stephens, through his desire to beat people wherever he happens to turn up, is in the toils of the law, and it rested with the citizens and officers of Gainesville to apprehend him and bring him where he belongs.

How Game Was Worked.

On Saturday of the past week S. Stephens, a well-dressed, sleek negro man, appeared in Waldo, and represented himself to be the head waiter of the Ponce de Leon Hotel in St. Augustine, who was out looking for waiters. He met J. Wesley Jones, an industrious and hardworking farmer of the Waldo section, and laid his plans open to him.

"I am here looking for waiters for the Ponce de Leon Hotel, St. Augustine," he said. "I am getting tired of these frisky city 'niggers,' and I want somebody with a little manners to come and work for me."

Stephens offered Jones $18 a week and his board, and assured him that he would be getting from $3 to $5 a day tips from the rich Northern folks who came down to spend the winter at the Ponce de Leon. Jones felt that he had cinched a good thing, and, notwithstanding that he was doing tolerably well at his little farm near Waldo, the proposition looked good to him, so he told Stephens that he would accept it.

But that was not all. Stephens informed Jones that, inasmuch as he had experienced so much trouble in retaining help, he required a cash bond of $200 as a guarantee that he would remain through the season, stating that if he did so the money would be returned to him when the hotel closed. Jones replied that he did not have the money at that time, but would meet him in Gainesville on Tuesday and pay in the required amount, which was agreed to.

Jones Met His Man.

Jones, in compliance with his promise, and with a fat job staring him in the face, with the opportunity of boarding at such a grand hostelry as the Ponce de Leon, if he was compelled to eat in the kitchen from what the white folks left, met his man here Tuesday morning. The meeting was a congenial one, since each felt that the other fellow would back out.

Going to the bank and drawing every penny to his credit, Jones and his new employer walked to the postoffice. At one of the desks in the front of the office Jones pulled from his pocket a roll of bills amounting to $110 and told Stephens that was all the money he had in the world. Stephens generously (?) pulled $80 from his pocket, offering that as a loan, and told him when they reached St. Augustine he would secure the deficiency to make up the $200. Before the eyes of Jones he placed the money in an envelope, sealed it up, and stated that he proposed to let him keep it until he reached his destination, but suggested that he write his name on the envelope before placing it in his pocket. The two negroes approached the money order window for the purpose of securing pen and ink, and in the meantime Stephens worked his rabbit foot.

From the postoffice the two men proceeded to the Seaboard Air Line depot, where it was agreed they would take the 2 o'clock train for St. Augustine via Jacksonville. About 12:30 Stephens was reminded suddenly that he had left a fine $10 umbrella and his walking cane at his boarding house. He summoned a carriage, requesting Jones to remain at the depot, assuring him that he would return as soon as he could secure the goods. Stephens drove back to the city, but was gone an uncomfortable length of time, when Jones became uneasy. He reached deep into his side coat pocket and felt the envelope, but something told him that it was not "just right." He pulled the package from his pocket and opened it, to find only a number of sheets of tissue paper.

Jones Chased Stephens.

This was a startling discovery for Jones, who had not been accustomed to any such rascality, and naturally he became alarmed, the prospects of losing that $110 upsetting his nerves. He lost no time in reporting the matter to Chief of Police Pinkoson, who suggested that the negro might be aboard the Atlantic Coast Line train, just about to clear, and suggested that he had better ascertain if the man was on the train. Accordingly a friend of Jones boarded the Atlantic Coast Line train just as she was pulling out, and discovered Stephens in a private compartment of one of the cars. He notified Conductor M. L. Gilmer of the train, and just as the negro emerged from his hiding place, thinking he was at last safe, he was looking into the muzzle of Conductor Gilmer's pistol, with an order to surrender.

Delivered to Police.

The negro was delivered into the custody of Chief of Police Pinkoson, when he was taken to the City Hall and searched. In one leg of his underclothing was found a roll of bills aggregating $190, the exact amount of the money taken from Jones and the money "advanced" as a loan. In a book in his coat pocket was found a handsome brooch valued at not less than $500, one diamond ring valued at $190, and two diamond rings valued at $125 each.

Stephens stated that he purchased the jewels from Charles Meyer & Co., loan brokers, 33 Third avenue, New York, and produced a receipt showing that he had paid $200 for the brooch and $100 for one of the rings. He did not produce receipts for the other two rings. Investigation, however, developed the fact that neither of the big commercial agencies have any record of such a firm existing. It is believed that Stephens is a slick gambler and pickpocket and that the stones were stolen. He claims New York as his home, but says he spends his winters in Florida in the capacity of employment agent for hotels.

Stephens was arraigned the in mayor's court Tuesday afternoon, when he was remanded to jail in default of $500 bond. Wesley appeared as the star witness in the case.

Brief Happenings From Various Sections of State.

THE MOST IMPORTANT EVENTS

Transpiring in "The Land of Flowers." Things "Boiled Down" to Suit the Busy Reader—Items of Interest to All Classes.

The hotels at Orlanda are entertaining more winter guests than ever before.

Palatka real estate is moving, says The Times-Herald. The wind was evidently blowing in that city.

Tampa's milk ordinance got along all right during the cold snap, but soured as soon as it warmed up.

Lawtey has a Ladies' Improvement Club. We know several that are all right without any improvement.

Prospect Lodge of Odd Fellows, Tampa, has bought a lot and will erect a building for a lodge room thereon.

A vote will be taken in Holmes county on Tuesday, April 11, 1905, for the purpose of locating a county site.

A gasoline explosion in Zuigley's bicycle shop at St. Augustine did considerable damage to building and stock.

Fish are so plentiful and have such appetites at Tavares that they don't wait for a hook with bait on, but seize the naked hooks with avidity.

Some of the citizens of Lee county are in favor of bonding for good roads. There is nothing like being in debt to make ambitious people hustle.

The Apalachicola Times expects to turn the swamps around that town into rice fields. If Apalachicola isn't something in the future besides an oyster bed, it won't be the newsman's fault.

Ed Peet found a relic in the Indian mound across the canal a few days ago. It is a flint rock in the shape of a plumbing weight. The stone is foreign to this section, and was probably fetched from afar.—Tavares Herald.

Two young men named Grantham and Jones narrowly escaped asphyxiation by gas in a St. Augustine hotel. They were found in the morning more dead than alive. They evidently turned the gas off and on again, by accident, when they retired.

Baldwin Marr, a respectable farmer living eight miles northwest of Jacksonville, was brutally murdered by Clarence Mason, colored, on Saturday night. Mrs. Lizzie Brittle, daughter of Marr, was seriously wounded. Without any apparent cause Mason called the old man to the barn and killed him with a shotgun. The daughter came to the aid of her father and he shot her. Mason had been in the employ of Marr.

Following are recent civic appointments made by Governor Broward: Harris E. Mickler to be treasurer of Hernando county, vice Hon. Nevitt Cook, deceased. Lucius G. Stringfellow, Sanford, to be justice of the peace in and for justice district No. 8, vice R. H. Marks, resigned. Among the notary publics at large are: Daniel Green, Macclenny; J. T. Terguson, Berlin; L. N. Pearce, Alachua; J. Berlin, Pensacola; William H. Hill, Eldredge; K. J. White, Campbellton; H. L. Higgins, Jacksonville.

Incredible Brutality.

It would have been incredible brutality if Charles F. Lemberger of Syracuse, N. Y., had not done the best he could for his suffering son. "My boy," he says, "cut a fearful gash over his eye, so I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which quickly healed it and saved his eye." Good for burns and ulcers too. Only 25c at all drug stores.

WAS THE LAST DAY.

Quail Shooters Made Best of Tuesday's Limit to Kill Birds.

The sportsmen of this section, realizing that Tuesday was the last day on which they could enjoy themselves shooting quail under the strong arm of the law, turned out in full force, with the result that the fields were filled with hunters, a great many of whom returned to the city loaded down with fine birds. The season closed with the setting of the sun of Tuesday.

The quail have thrived wonderfully in Alachua county this season, and there have been a great many of them. The hunters, notwithstanding that they have killed thousands, state that there are yet an abundance, but they will not be permitted to shoot them until the next season is on. They must turn their attention to other game.

If the Baby is Cutting Teeth

Be sure and use that old and well-tried remedy, Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Well Known Insurance Man Dies.

Nashville, Tenn., Feb. 28.—J. S. Moore, a special insurance agent widely known throughout Kentucky and Tennessee, is dead at his home in Hopkinsville, Ky.

The Unfinished Cornice.

People who pass the Rothschild mansion in the fashionable quarter of London often notice that the end of one of the cornices is unfinished. Every one asks why. The explanation is a very simple yet suggestive one when it is known.

Lord Rothschild is an orthodox Jew, and every pious Jew's house, tradition says, must have some part unfinished, to bear testimony to the world that its occupant is only, like Abraham, a pilgrim and a stranger upon the earth.

The incomplete cornice upon the mansion seems to say to all who hurry by in the streets bent on amassing worldly wealth or going along with the madding crowd in the paths of folly, "This is not Lord Rothschild's home; he is traveling to eternity." We, too, should remember that we are travelers. Dean Stanley left as an inscription to be placed on his tomb these words: "The inn of a traveler on his way to Jerusalem."

Mixed Types.

Some years ago the editor of a down east newspaper undertook to compliment an eminent citizen as "a noble old burgher, proudly loving his native state," but the neatly turned compliment came from the compositor's hands "a nobby old burglar, prowling round in a naked state." This was as perverse and shocking as the blunder in the message Ernest Renan had occasion to telegraph across the English channel on the subject of a proposed lecture by him in Westminster abbey. The subject as written by him was "The Influence of Rome on the Formation of Christianity." It was announced in England as "The Influence of Rum on the Digestion of Humanity!"—Saturday Evening Post.

Invaluable for Rheumatism.

I have been suffering for the past few years with a severe attack of rheumatism and found that Ballard's Snow Liniment was the only thing that gave me satisfaction and tended to alleviate my pains. March 24th, 1902, John C. Degnan, Kinsman, Ill. 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

The Preacher's Closing Word.

He had just said, "One word more, and I have done."

Then he closed the book in front of him.

"Amen!" he said.—Chicago Tribune.

Startling Mortality.

Statistics show startling mortality from appendicitis and peritonitis. To prevent and cure these awful diseases there is just one reliable remedy, Dr. King's New Life Pills. M. Flannery, 14 Custom House Place, Chicago, says: "They have no equal for constipation and biliousness." 25c at druggists.

A Humble Apology.

Conversation overheard in a London street; scene, laborer working on a scaffold, contemplating surrounding view, when his foreman comes along down below and, looking up and seeing him idle, calls out to him: "So yer 'aving a look round! What do yer think of the weather?" Workman (looking down with contempt)—Noa; I'm a-working! Foreman—Oh, I beg yer pardon! I'm sorry I stopped yer!—London Globe.

Few women confide fully in a physician. They simply will not tell him all. That's why many doctors fail to cure female diseases.

Every woman dreads the ordeal of the physician's consulting room. A sensitive, refined woman shrinks from the searching questions and the physical examination!

It is not so in writing to Mrs. Pinkham. Thousands of women owe their present health and happiness (yes, and their good looks, too) to the fact that they have told all their physical troubles to Mrs. Pinkham and followed her advice and been cured of female diseases.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Cures more women every year than any other medicine in the world. If you are in doubt about your case, write in perfect confidence to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. You will receive in reply a personal letter of advice free.

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—For three months I was sick in bed with female trouble and had four doctors, who all agreed that I must undergo an operation and have my ovaries removed. My sister advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before I submitted to an operation. I did so and am very glad to say that after I had used five bottles I was restored to perfect health, which I have enjoyed ever since. I am only too glad to recommend your medicines, as they saved me from an operation which might have proved fatal. MRS. M. KUTTNER.
556 South Main St., Los Angeles, Cal.

Mrs. Hayes also profited by Mrs. Pinkham's advice.

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Sometime ago I wrote you describing my symptoms (fibroid tumor) and asked your advice. You replied and I followed all your directions carefully and to-day am a well woman.

MISSISSIPPI FERRYBOAT SINKS.

Cairo, Ills., Feb. 28. The ferryboat Katherine, which plies between Cairo and Bird's Point, was struck today near here by a big piece of ice and sank in several feet of water.

Many passengers were aboard the boat, including a number of Cairo traveling men, and a panic followed the sinking of the vessel.

The passengers, after much difficulty, were all taken off in safety.

The Katherine is an old boat and had been in service for many years. Ten years ago she was overturned in the middle of the Ohio river by a severe storm, and a dozen or more lives were lost. The boat was in command of Captain J. W. Hacker.

THREAT IN MURDER TRIAL.

Lawyer Receives Warning to Withdraw from Case.

Des Moines, Feb. 28.—Walter McHenry senior counsel for Charles Thomas, on trial for the murder of Mabel schofield, has received a letter threatening him with death if he does not withdraw from the case. The letter says

"If he (Thomas) is cleared, you and the hired jury will do it; the people feel justice cannot be obtained while you are living, and they propose to adopt the Russian practice used on Grand Duke Sergius. You have to stop your injustice."

Attorney McHenry turned the latter over to the post-office authorities.

Fatal Gas Explosion.

Decrease In New Corporations.

New York, Feb. 28.—Papers filed for the new companies in eastern states during February with a capital of $1,000,000 or over, represents a capital of $93,600,000, a decrease as compared with January of over $17,600,000. The state of Maine heads the list of new incorporations, with a total of $42,000,000.

Kills Man and Wounds Daughter.

Jacksonville, Fla., Feb. 28.—Early Sunday night Baldwin Marr, a white farmer living 8 miles from this city, was shot through the heart and instantly killed and his daughter, Mrs. Brittle, was seriously wounded by Clarence Mason, a negro employed by Marr. Mason made his escape, but is being pursued by a posse.

A Gentle Knock.

Those who are in the habit of arriving home in the early hours and finding their doors and windows locked and their "folks" asleep beyond the power of the doorbell to awaken them will find comfort in a new recipe for their relief offered by the New York Evening Post.

A man who had banged the front door and rattled the knob for nearly an hour appealed to a policeman to help him break a pane of glass or open a window.

"It isn't necessary," said the policeman. "I'll wake up your family."

He walked up the street to a pile of building material and brought back a piece of board about five feet long. This he slammed flat sided against the side of the house with a tremendous whang.

"I guess that'll rouse 'em," he said. "You see, that sort of a blow sets the whole house to vibrating and makes the folks inside dream of dynamite explosions."

He had hardly uttered the words when a front window opened and a head appeared.

"Oh, officer," gasped a woman's voice, "what in goodness' name was that awful noise?"

Good Looks and Conceit.

The man's Apollo is generally a comely specimen of flesh and blood, with a blooming cheek and bright eye, who is a credit to his tailor. Women admire a more rugged type, or a type in which a tinge of asceticism is combined with intense nervous strength, or the picturesque may take their fancy. Roughly, the good looking are vain or not, in proportion as they are dowered with the saving salt of humor. So with the women. The pretty dolls may be vain. The nobler and more interesting beauties are probably less so than their plainer sisters, for the simple reason that their physical charms are undoubted and have been tacitly acknowledged ever since they can remember. They shine without effort, and their attention is preoccupied with make it the most widely chosen of all leavening agents. During this year 16,145,114 pounds have been sold (many orders coming in for car-load shipments), which is the largest business for a single factory in the world. This is only the inevitable result of the original Good Luck plan—to furnish the best baking powder in the world at the lowest price—10 cents a pound.

Good Luck is the best because it is purest, because it produces the lightest, whitest, sweetest of baking. These results are due to its unequaled leavening force, to the fact that it contains no adulteration whatever. It is the most economical because it takes less to do the work than any other baking powder. If your dealer doesn't sell Good Luck let us know, and we'll see that you are supplied at once.

Nothing Wasted.

Chemistry, like a thrifty housewife, economizes every scrap. The horseshoe nails dropped in the streets are carefully collected and reappear as swords and guns. The main ingredient of the ink with which I now write was probably once the broken hoop of an old beer barrel. The chippings of the traveling tinker are mixed with the parings of horses' hoofs and the worst kind of woolen rags, and these are worked up into an exquisite blue dye which graces the dresses of courtly dames.

The dregs of port wine, carefully decanted by the toper, are taken in the morning as a seidlitz powder to remove the effect of the debauch. The offal of the streets and the wastings of coal gas reappear carefully preserved in the ladies' smelling bottle or used by her to flavor blancmange for her friends. All thrift is an imitation of the economy of nature, which allows no waste.—London Answers.

Buying a Horse.

No sensible man will buy a horse of any value and one which he expects to do him good service without submitting to a qualified veterinary surgeon, says a writer in a foreign exchange. Many an unprofessional man has a good eye for a horse, but he knows little or nothing of its structure and anatomy compared with the trained veterinarian. Moreover, the amateur judge of a horse is apt to fly to certain points where he thinks he may detect something and overlook others. The veterinary surgeon who is examining horses almost every day not only brings his scientific knowledge to bear, but conducts his examination in a systematic manner, going all over the horse before he has done with him. If there be manifest unsoundness it will be discovered and pointed out, but it is in the discovery and indication of incipient unsoundness that the training and practice of the veterinarian are of supreme value.

The Reason For It.

She—No, Mrs. Gayley is not popular. The moment she entered the room where the sewing circle was assembled there was a painful silence everywhere. He—I see. A silence is so particularly painful to women that the person responsible for such a condition must of necessity be unpopular.

Schafer, the fisherman, although not the "lone fisherman," went to Prairie Creek with a party yesterday, when they witnessed an exhibition of the piscatorial art by Herr Schafer, after which they enjoyed a fish dinner prepared by this equally famous connoiseur. The party was made up of Northern visitors as follows: G. W. Hutchinson and wife, J. N. Marsh and wife, Mesdames Cosler, Daugherty, Smith, Cole, Laughlin, Neunert, Byers, Misses Pomeroy, Cole, Brown, Messrs. Floding, Hessinger and Whittemore.

READ THIS.

Lexington, Tenn., June 5, 1901.

This is to certify that about March last I suffered intensely with my back and kidneys. Just prior to this I had undergone treatment for bladder trouble and was relieved, except the treatment was followed by the above trouble. It was recommended that I try "Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery." I took one dose on retiring at night, and to my agreeable astonishment, I found myself relieved. One dose did the work. There is no bosh about this. It is wonderful.

Respectfully,
C. R. Scott,
Proprietor Scott House, formerly county chief clerk, postmaster, etc.

A TEXAS WONDER.

One small bottle of the Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, cures all kidney and bladder troubles, removes gravel, cures diabetes, seminal emissions, weak and lame backs, rheumatism and all irregularities of the kidneys and bladder in both men and women, regulates bladder troubles in children. If not sold by your druggist, will be sent by mail on receipt of $1. One small bottle is two months' treatment and seldom fails to perfect a cure. Dr. Ernest W. Hall, sole manufacturer, P. O. box 629, St. Louis, Mo. Send for testimonials. Sold by all druggists.

Mrs. W. D. Williams of High Springs was in the city yesterday. She went to Rochelle to meet her husband, Conductor W. D. Williams, who is running between St. Petersburg and Jacksonville on the Atlantic Coast Line.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. McDowell of Newberry are at the Brown House. Mr. McDowell is connected with the Central Phosphate Company, holding a lucrative position with that concern. He has many friends here who are glad to see him.

Chas. Riley of Nettleton, who is engaged in the fishing industry at that point, was among the business visitors to this city yesterday. Mr. Riley states that the fish are running finely now. They are fat and of the finest varieties, and are bringing good prices. He is employing a great many men, and shipping several barrels of fine fish daily.

The friends of Chas. W. Parham will regret to learn that he is confined to his home with la grippe, threatened with pneumonia. Mr. Parham, who is an operator in the employ of the Atlantic Coast Line, has been subjected to double duty recently, and has worked such long hours that his health has been temporarily impaired. It is hoped, however, that he will soon be out again.

Attention is called to the change of advertisement of the Cash Grocery Company, which appears elsewhere in this issue. This company, of which J. R. Emerson is manager, carries at all times a fine and fresh stock of groceries at prices which would surprise the average shopper, and would be pleased to wait on you at any time. All orders are promptly filled, but the management insists upon spot cash for all goods, which enables him to offer exceptional bargains.

The grand old tree on the north side which has for many years accommodated and cooled the sweated brows of the fatigued "in the good old summer time," was yesterday felled by the axe of the street gang, the tree having died several weeks ago. The work was executed under the supervision of Councilman Pedrick, who himself declared that it was a shame such a magnificent shade tree should have "passed to the beyond." There are many trees about the streets which for some reason or another are dead, and all of these must be removed to make the thoroughfares presentable.

A NOTED WOMAN,

COUSIN OF LATE U. S. PRESIDENT ZACHARY TAYLOR,

Seventy-Six Years of Age, Recommends Vinol for Old People.

Mrs. Sarah J. Windrom of 429 West Erie street, Chicago, a member of one of the most distinguished families in the country, cousin of Zachary Taylor, twelfth President of the United States, and grandniece of Alexander Hamilton, who signed the Declaration of Independence, writes:

"Vinol is a godsend to old people. I am 76 years old, but I feel active and well today, thanks to the vitalizing effects of Vinol.

"My appetite is all that could be desired. I sleep well and my mind is clear, and I am interested in the affairs of life as I was fifty years ago.

"When I was young cod liver oil was dispensed in a greasy, unpalatable form, and it fairly gagged me to get it down. Vinol is so different, palatable and nourishing to impoverished blood.

"I feel so much stronger, both mentally and physically, since I used Vinol that I feel it my duty, as well as a pleasure, to recommend Vinol as the finest tonic I ever used in my life."

MRS. SARAH J. WINDROM.

Such words of praise from a person of such high standing must be accepted as unquestionable proof of the superiority of Vinol.

Do you wonder that our Vinol has such a strong hold upon the esteem of doctors and patients? We know of nothing else that will accomplish such wonderful results; and remember, Vinol is not a patent medicine.

There are hundreds of old people in this vicinity who need just such a strength-maker and tissue-builder as Vinol. Their blood is thin and sluggish—Vinol will enrich and quicken the blood and build up the system. It is so much better than whiskey and strong stimulants, which always have a bad after-effect and weaken and break down. There is nothing in the world so good for the weak, the aged or the run-down system and to cure a hanging-on cold or hacking cough as Vinol, and because we know so well what it will do we are always ready to refund every cent paid us for it if it fails to do what we say. Try it on our guarantee. W. M. Johnson, Druggist.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes Frederick of Atlanta, Ga., have arrived in the city, and will spend several days here as guests of the Brown House. They are here for pleasure, and are enjoying themselves every day hunting and fishing. They are well pleased with this section and their hostelry, and expect to remain for an indefinite period.

After a pleasant visit of several months to her brother, Hon. W. G. Robinson, in this city, Mrs. Fred S. Bosworth departed Monday for Washington, D. C. After a visit of a few days in the Capitol City, during which she will visit the Presidential inauguration, she expects to proceed to her home in Warrick, R. I. While here the lady made a great many friends, all of whom regretted to see her leave but hope she will return next season.
